Subject: FW: Special Handling Letter
Attachments: order management documents list.pdf

Good morning all, the program office for the following documents have been working w/Miriam Vincent on the processing of their RTR packages that contain IBR and we will need to complete special handling letters for six of the actions. Can someone please provide OFRs document number for each corresponding document so we can update and complete our special handling letter(s). I have included a pdf of heading for each document. Thanks for your help.

Subject: RE: NESHAP documents for publication (part 63)

Miriam,

Thank you for your email and I completely understand your frustration. When we receive our FR packages from the program office, they are required to include a FR cover form with standard information that we need to process the document, including a section to indicate if there are any special handling instructions. The only two packages that included the order of publication were the two that I mentioned in my previous email. The program office neglected to follow through with what was agreed upon with your office and failed to coordinate that information with us in the midst of the urgency to get these out the door.

Again, on behalf of EPA, I can't express enough my apologies for this mishap. I will ask Mary to remind the program offices the importance of keeping us informed of any communication and agreement made between EPA and OFR when submitting certain documents to avoid these types of situations.

Thanks again for all your continued assistance!

Yes to the first question, sort-of to the second.

While the instruction to publish 2 documents in a specific order would have been helpful within a set of instructions for all of them, that one set of instructions will have little overall impact because the other 5 also amend the span of paragraphs in § 63.14 – redesignating and revising the same paragraphs. I have no idea what the end result will be.

I've attached the email I send at the beginning of February when the first of these documents came in. EPA-IBR was included and you addressed the 2 documents we had live at that point. I followed up with the program office POC who was coordinating all of the documents and said he needed to work with your office on the timing and the special handling letters but I did not send another specific email to HQ. There's only so much I can do and this is just one of many offices within EPA, which is just one of many agencies that I have to help.

Good morning, Miriam,

Please accept my apologies for the large volume of documents and the order in which they were submitted, we (FR Liaison's) were under a tight timeframe from management in getting these documents to OFR by Monday and this was definitely an oversight.

There were two documents submitted FRL-10006-87-OAR and FRL-1000-88-OAR that had special handling letters requesting that one publish before the other. Should there have been special handling letters with all of them that were submitted with Part 63?

Also, were your instructions to send the documents in order of publication sent to our IBR proxy box?

Thank you, and again my apologies!

Both rules are under review and we will contact you with edits and/or publication information.

Please note we currently have 33 rules and proposed rule from the EPA that we are trying to review. If any of these are particularly pressing, please submit a special handling request for that document.

As for these two rules, they are two of seven we received on March 17 all of them dealing with national emissions standards and all of which are supposed to publish together in a particular order per your instructions.

Please let me know if you have further questions.

Hi Chipp:

Understood and thanks for your prompt response. It's appreciated.

Brad:

I have consulted all the EPA FR editors, and here is where we stand regarding these six documents:

1. FRL-10006-70-OAR; on 6/1/2020 Stephanie Morris sent you additional edits from the EPA program. She has not heard back from you on those additional EPA program edits sent on 6/1/2020.
2. FRL-10006-74-OAR; Stephanie Morris states that the EPA program approved the edits, and she conveyed this to you.
3. FRL-10006-76-OAR; Patricia Brooks states that the EPA program approved the edits, and she conveyed this to you.
4. FRL-10006-87-OAR; Elizabeth Thomas states that the EPA program approved the edits, and I conveyed this to you.
5. FRL-10006-88-OAR; Stephanie Washington sent your edits from 5/27/2020 to the EPA program today, 6/19/2020, and is awaiting a response from the EPA program.
6. FRL-10006-94-OAR; Stephanie Washington sent your edits from 5/27/2020 to the EPA program today, 6/19/2020, and is awaiting a response from the EPA program.

Hi Miriam:

Thanks for your email below. I have forwarded your comments below to the EPA program today, 5/8/2020.

Please note that Brad Brooks is on leave through 5/11/2020. Hence, I am including on the cc line of this email the people that Brad Brooks requested be notified of any updates regarding this document, FRL-10006-87-OAR, in his absence.

Also, please note that I sent Brad Brooks and others in the cc line of this email a separate email today, 5/8/2020, with the EPA program's responses to Brad Brooks' edits for this document.

Thanks,

Good morning –

By way of background, this document, that Brad has already sent markup on, is one of at least 8 (at last count) NESHAP RTRs that are amending §63.14, the centralized IBR section.

I just discovered in reviewing a draft IBR request for another rule that an attempt to fix a typo failed in one of the rules that are currently pending publication and that has had a cascade effect. I've fixed the issue in the document you have not gotten edits back on. The original typo was a cross-reference that read "table 3 to subpart YYYY". Instead of removing one Y (since the standard is IBRed in subpart YYYY), the entire cross-reference was removed. So I've added back the correct reference into the production version of this document. The paragraph, as corrected, reads as follows:

§ 63.14(e)(1)

(1) ANSI/ASME PTC 19.10-1981, Flue and Exhaust Gas Analyses [Part 10, Instruments and Apparatus], issued August 31, 1981, IBR approved for §§63.309(k), 63.457(k), 63.772(e) and (h), 63.865(b), 63.997(e), 63.1282(d) and (g), 63.1625(b), 63.3166(a), 63.3360(e), 63.3545(a), 63.3555(a), 63.4166(a), 63.4362(a), 63.4766(a), 63.4965(a), 63.5160(d), table 4 to subpart UUUU, table 3 to subpart YYYY, 63.9307(c), 63.9323(a), 63.11148(e), 63.11155(e), 63.11162(f), 63.11163(g), 63.11410(j), 63.11551(a), 63.11646(a), and 63.11945, table 5 to subpart DDDDD, table 4 to subpart JJJJJ, table 4 to subpart KKKKK, tables 4 and 5 of subpart UUUUU, table 1 to subpart ZZZZZ, and table 4 to subpart JJJJJJ.

If you have any questions, please let me know. You do not need to take any specific action, and unless you object to this particular edit, generally accepting edits will include acceptance of this one.

Thank you,

Miriam

Thanks. Just wanted to be sure you received the email.

Also, I know, regarding this statement you made below:

"I scheduled the one that I sent that wasn't part of the series (2020-05909)"

Thanks for the above.

Yes, I did. I haven't moved on them because of today's work combined with checking the publication order. But I've received a few approvals and have them on reminder.

Hi Brad:

The EPA program states the following regarding this document, Document number 2020-05898; FRL-10006-87-OAR, which is one of the six documents that has to publish in a certain order.

“We approve the OFR edits for publication.”

Also, as a friendly reminder the EPA program states the following:

“We would like to provide a reminder that, due to IBR considerations, this action should publish following:

Cellulose RTR, FRL-10006-76-OAR.”

Attached is the special handling letter with the order the six documents should publish in for your reference.

Good afternoon,

I've gotten through all the documents submitted way back in March. I know we've traded markup in the time since on some of these, but since several depended on the actions in others, it's best if you review all again for accuracy's sake.

Please review all of them, as several have new edits and one or two may be our first pass-backs. In 5898, I explain some of the edits that EPA questioned/exploined at its end last time.

Some need decisions or perhaps language, like headings, in places.

Hopefully we're on the verge of finally moving these things along.

Thanks,

Brad Brooks

That's cool. And sorry it's taking so long. The dependence on the others and their size and all the days I'm emergencies editor have a role in the delay. I've learned not to promise these days, but it's likely I start scheduling them today.

I have it saved somewhere, but if you have that publication date order, I'd love to have a fresh view of it.
